

Simple. Easy. Defensible.

Control your legal hold process with an intuitive and quick to implement solution.

LegalHold

Expect Success

Your organization has a duty to preserve relevant information when it learns of pending litigation or investigation. Manual or traditional approaches of the legal hold process are difficult, costly, error-prone and leave your enterprise open to risk.

Mitratech LegalHold simplifies the process with an easy-to-use SaaS solution to mitigate risk, reduce costs and give you control of the entire legal hold process.

Does your current process leave you exposed?

- Is it difficult for your legal department to identify the location of all data that may need to be collected?
- Is it hard to efficiently deliver instructions to custodians for preserving that information?
- Can you prove you've taken reasonable step to accomplish this, so you can prevent increased risk and negative consequences during litigation?

Reduce risk & cut costs with Mitatech LegalHold

- The easy-to-use SaaS solution for mitigating the risks and costs of entire legal hold process, supported by a global leader in legal technology.
- Intuitive design maximizes efficiency for both the legal department and custodians who must attest to their obligations.
- A standardized, repeatable process reduces the risk of potential evidence being deleted, and can stand up to judicial scrutiny.

LegalHold Simplified

Why LegalHold?

Easy-to-use

LegalHold's intuitive modern design is clear and easy to adopt for both legal staff and custodians and driving 100% compliance needed for successful hold management. Our UX is optimized for mobile devices too.

Co-Innovation

As a tried and true partner, Mitratach partnered with 40+ customers to create this solution through co-innovation partnerships. By directly listening and collecting feedback from our customer base, our nimble development team can easily respond.

Defensible

Results of a legal hold are instantly and easily reportable, so your process can withstand judicial scrutiny. Complete auditability of all actions, escalations, and attestations means you avoid court sanctions for non-compliance.

Efficient

Reduce legal staff time spent on legal holds by as much as 75% by automating the process.
